A prayer retreat reflecting on Mark 10:35–52.

When you can't catch up with your life—stop trying for a day!

Enter a space of rich quiet, a sanctuary of openness. Awareness increases, appreciation grows, attention to what's real remains. Take a personal day to explore, examine, and express your desire in answer to Jesus' question: "What do you want me to do for you?" You'll leave the retreat with a clearer awareness of yourself and your purpose, with your eyes aligned to Jesus' vision. Don't worry: your life will wait for you. You'll re-engage it with an increased capacity to direct your day-to-day with strength and grace.

Jesus asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"
